She has dedicated her life to serve and adhere to the heavenly Father's rules. Fannie shares stories of people she has met along the way, and how the heavenly Father blesses her to be an open vessel for others to do His will. She believes, no matter what trial or troubles one may go through; past, present or future, always trust in God. Most of all, Fannie's faith and trust in God are what strengthens the Holy Spirit that lives within her. In the Bible, Hebrews 11:1 - Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. When you begin to praise and worship God, His word, He promises not to abandon, and will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory. So come and join Fannie on this spiritual journey. Be a blessing for others when you discover your gifts and talents.
