Well, I never in my life knew such a change as Farnwood has made in Miss Manners ! observed old Hannah, the Woodford Cottage maid; who, though carefully kept in ignorance of any facts that could betray the secret of Christal s history, yet seemed at times to bear a secret grudge against her, as an interloper. There she comes, riding across the country like some wild thing -- she who used to be so prim and precise ! Poor young creature, she is like a bird just let out of a cage, said Mrs. Rothesay, kindly. It is often so with girls brought up as she has been. Olive, I am glad you never went to school. Olive s answer was stopped by the appearance of Christal, followed by one of the young Fludyer boys, with whom she had...
