Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 120 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. After we reach age 50, we can look at our past knowing that we are not the same person we were 20 years ago, only 20 years older. We are wiser, possessing greater knowledge and making better life choices. Now is the time to set aside our cultures aging stereotypes that are often based in fear, isolation and personal diminishment. It is time to embrace the second half of life with optimism, passion, humor, creativity and wisdom. No generation in history has had this rich opportunity. Barb Warner relates personal stories that have led her to celebrate the first half of life and of the wisdom that those experiences have brought to the second half. Among the life experiences that she includes are change, creativity, life stories, gratitude and resilience. She hopes that this book brings to light ideas that will help all her readers discover their own genuine value and to explore their beliefs about the power they have to create magic in the second half of life. Now in her seventies, Barb is continuing to learn from her own life experiences. Her goal is to help others in the second half of life do the same and see where they have made courageous life choices. She hopes that you will join her in mining your experiences and harvesting the wisdom, courage and knowledge that is now yours. This has the potential to be a new exciting chapter in your life. Barb lives in Aurora, Colorado with her daughter, her daughters partner and their three dogs. Barb Warner is a great guide on the passion trail. She has mined her own life for its precious jewels and hands them out chapter by chapter in...
