Say it til it melts on your tongue and you remember how I taste Sebastian Croix Investment Banker Avery Ellis is haunted by a secret from his past. A secret that he and his close friends Chris, Jason and Gregory had kept since high school; a secret that he d thought they d buried over twenty-five years ago, but when Gregory is brutally murdered on January 17th 2014 and Jason brutally murdered exactly a month later, Avery begins to suspect that the murders have something to do with their dirty secret. Avery s paranoia escalates into overdrive, he starts to feel uneasy; feeling as though someone is watching his every move; as if someone has always been watching him. When a mysterious piece of the twenty-five year old secret is delivered to Avery s house, his suspicions of being watched are confirmed; someone knows! But who? The night terrors began to take a toll on Avery and his relationship with his fiancée the beautiful Jordynn Christopher, his high school sweetheart; the woman he was no longer in love with, but the woman who got him through his nightmares. He d hidden his secret from her; she could never know, but when Avery starts receiving riddled notes from the unknown culprit, he then starts to believe that he knows who it is; the paranoia persists to the point of desperation; he now questions his only remaining friend, Chris loyalty to the point of threatening his life, his only recourse is to enlist the help of the person he despises most, Mr. Sebastian Croix, the wealthiest man in LaMontagne Parish, Louisiana; a...
