

Evaluating Research in Health and Social Care: A Reader

By Roger Gomm, Gill Needham, Anne Bullman

SAGE Publications Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Evaluating Research in Health and Social Care: A Reader, Roger Gomm, Gill Needham, Anne Bullman, 'This is an ambitious contribution to the ever-growing market for research textbooks. The book concludes with an excellent appendix on sources of literature! useful for postgraduate students and staff wishing to fill gaps and/or double-check their facts' - Physiotherapy 'In lieu of serving up the usual fare of methods and applications to be chosen from at whim, it concentrates on clinicians with limited time who wish to evaluate research rather than necessarily do it themselves. If you already have a book on research methods, this book will still fine-tune your antennae to the good, the bad and the cant' - The British Journal of Healthcare Computing and Information Management 'Recommended reading' - Oxford Brookes University, Oxford Practitioners across the caring professions increasingly need to know where evidence can be found and to evaluate different forms of evidence with a critical eye. This invaluable collection includes exemplars of a wide range of research techniques and provides a critical commentary for each. The commentary is designed to tackle jargon and demystify the text, highlighting the compromises that need to be made...

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
