Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 389 pages. Immediately, she felt herself being sucked down deep into the Earth by an irresistible force. She could not breathe! She panicked! This must be the beginning of the severe and painful death she used to overhear her people say she would surely endure. She was accelerating downward at a speed she thought impossible. It was too dark to know where she was or what was surrounding her. The life is being sucked out of me. Im dying. She thought of Yachay. What would he think when he came looking for her and she was gone Would he think she had been killed in the jungle and never made it No, he would find her tracks and see that she had made it. And then, would he step through the elusive wall and die too She could feel the blackness. The air was being sucked out of her body. She was flying, flying through a tunnel. She felt herself gasping when. . . SMASH. . . she slammed into something hard and lost consciousness ARROWS THROUGH TIME is an entertaining, enchanting, and enthralling flight of fantasy - an ageless tale for all ages. An Inca girl spurned by her tribe. A California boy lost in a storm at sea. An Israelite kingdom in upheaval. These unrelated calamities intersect at the mountain retreat of archeologists Ben and Alison Hunter. Displaced in time, Kawsay and Nate, their improbable young visitors, materialize out of the night and interrupt a sabbatical with an astonishing series of revelations. An accidental intruder has disrupted a pivotal event in ancient history, and it must be set right. Family members left behind are in mortal danger. The value of one lost girl is magnified beyond measure by the power of love. Small...
